Richard Bennett is an adventurer, photographer and bookmaker from Bruny Island, Tasmania. He has photographed the Sydney to Hobart Yacht race from his small aircraft for 40 years in all types of weather. Perfecting the art of capturing not just the yacht but the mood and scale of the vast ocean and the signature Tasmanian landscape, Richard's photographs have been celebrated around the world, winning multiple awards and gracing the covers and pages of sporting magazines across the globe. Richard has also sailed from Cape Town around the Cape of Good Hope across the Southern Ocean in winter and walked many of the alpine walks in southern Tasmania hosting landscape photography tours. He is an AIPP Master of Photography and also a past president and chair. He has produced 11 books with his latest "Bruny Island - food from the edge of the world" proving his most popular yet. At Hidden Valley Richard will take you from the kitchen to the dining room to the landscape giving you full insight into his creative process.

Hidden Valley is located one and half hours drive northwest of Townsville, near Running River on the western slope of the Paluma range in Queensland. It is riddled with stunning locations, from scenic waterfalls, Lake Paluma, to untouched rainforests, to some of the most spectacular gorges in Australia. These pristine environments also host the region's most rare and endangered species of flora and fauna including platypus, cassowary and golden bowerbird. All within close proximity to your accommodation, these locations offer stunning photo opportunities.

Whilst at the workshop you will be hosted by Hidden Valley Cabins, an Australian Tourism Award winning resort. Nestled in the heart of the forest and committed to environmental sustainability, Hidden Valley Cabins is Australia's 1st fully solar powered and carbon-neutral resort. After listening to Les and Richard, the Hidden Valley guides will take you to some of its best locations, from the gorge to the rainforest to put your learning into practice. You can also use the Epson printers to create your own art prints to take home.

Our head chef, Natalie, will treat you to amazing meals. We have sourced North Queensland's best produce to photograph, prepare and enjoy including North Queensland mudcrab, barramundi, black bream, red claw, rare tropical fruits and locally grown grass fed beef. Even if you are not a food photographer you will want to make some images. Richard Bennett will be teaching you the art of food photography and book publishing, so some meals will begin with a short workshop.

Register for this workshop now at:
